Immersed in the world and in the cares of the pastoral life, the salesian learns to meet God through those to whom he is sent. Discovering the fruits of the Spirit in the lives of men, especially the young, he gives thanks for everything, as he shares their problems and sufferings, he invokes upon them the light and strength of God's presence. His need of God, keenly felt in his commitment, leads him to celebrate the liturgy of life, attaining that tireless industry made holy by prayer and union with God, characteristic of the sons of St. John Bosco.
